THANK YOU for joining us at the BUCKLE UP! RANCH HORSE SCHOOLING SERIES. We are excited that you have selected to join us at the gorgeous Washington State Horse Park venue. Our vision for this event is to have fun and enjoy the weekend with our horses and friends while improving and testing our ranch riding skills! We have a little housekeeping to keep everyone on the same page and safe.

This is a schooling show with no national sanction. For general guidance the show will follow AQHA ranch riding rules.

Buckles will be awarded to the exhibitor with the most points per division after the series has been completed.

All ties shall be broken by number of first place wins or fewest penalties whichever applies.

Rider and horse must be the same combo to qualify for division awards.

Show management reserves the right to make final decisions.

DIVISIONS -

Rookie Division - Exhibitor has not earned more than 10 lifetime points or $500 in any breed or national organization. And have not engaged in training or assisting training to horses that do not belong to them, judging horse shows or coaching other riders in the last 5 years.

Youth Division – Exhibitors under the age of 18. Stallions are not allowed in youth classes.

Amateur Division – Exhibitors that have not engaged in training or assisting training to horses that do not belong to them, judging horse shows or coaching other riders in the last 5 years. Riders 19 years and older. No Crossover to Amateur Select Class

Amateur Select Division – Exhibitors 50 and older. No Crossover to Amateur Class

Open Division - Exhibitors may show up to four horses per class.

Green Division - Horses and/or riders in the first two years of showing that specific class. Horses may be shown in a snaffle.
